Dear Sir:

I am sure an express package, # B03216399, from New York will arrive in Pittsburg today. Unfortunately I am having to leave early this morning for Dallas. Will you kindly hold the package for me until I return on July 23 or 24...I will call for it at the postoffice. You will no doubt recall my having phoned you concerning the package, at which time you informed me that it would no doubt arrive today, the 19th.

Thank you so much for this cooperation.
